Zimmern o. R., June 06, 2019. RAMPF Production Systems has donated 3,500 euros to Feldner Mühle, a development association for children, adolescents, and young adults with disabilities in Villingen, Germany.

Just relax, leave everyday life behind, and have fun: For children, adolescents, and young adults with disabilities, the Feldner Mühle in Villingen is a peaceful retreat.

During the holidays and on weekends, the renowned social institution's experienced team offers its guests an exciting and at the same time relaxing program. This includes pony rides, face painting, campfires, parties, and cooking together.

"This comprehensive offer is very important for both the children and their parents, as the latter can also take some time out and recharge their batteries", says Bernd Faller, CEO of RAMPF Production Systems, a market-leading specialist for production systems with integrated dispensing technology based in Zimmern o. R., Germany.

To support and promote this great offer, RAMPF Production Systems has donated the proceeds of its annual employee raffle in the amount of 3,500 euros to the Feldner Mühle.

The donation certificate was presented by Bernd Faller (CEO of RAMPF Production Systems; left) and Simon Scheerer (Works Council member at RAMPF Production Systems; right) to Paul Mäder (Chairman of the Feldner Mühle Development Association).
