Grafenberg, Germany, July 7, 2025. For the fourth year in a row, the Rudolf Rampf Foundation has awarded a record amount of funding to support youth initiatives in Grafenberg. A total of 14,059 Euros will benefit local clubs and municipal projects.

Founded in 2001, the foundation is dedicated to strengthening youth work in Grafenberg. Its focus is particularly on musical education in local music clubs, youth sports in athletic associations, and open youth work organized by the municipality.

The funding comes from the foundation's capital returns and is specifically allocated to projects and initiatives that benefit children and young people in Grafenberg. Since its establishment, the foundation has awarded over 150,000 Euros – a strong testament to its lasting commitment to future generations.

The 2025 funding has been allocated as follows:

- TSV Grafenberg Soccer: 2,420 Euros
- Tennis Club Grafenberg: 2,000 Euros
- Music Association Grafenberg: 1,500 Euros
- Municipality of Grafenberg – Musical Instruments: 2,000 Euros
- Municipality of Grafenberg – Trampoline: 3,739 Euros
- Protestant Youth Church: 1,000 Euros
- Jan Hempel, Fencing Athlete: 1,400 Euros

Founder Rudolf Rampf – “For more than 20 years, our foundation has been committed to supporting children and young people in our community. Together with Foundation Chairman Horst Bader and board members Volker Brodbeck and Michael Rampf, I am proud that we have once again been able to award a record amount of funding this year. This continued support empowers clubs and organizations to bring meaningful projects to life that make a real difference for the youth of Grafenberg.”

The official awarding of the 2025 grants took place last Saturday, July 5, during the TSV Grafenberg Sports Week.
